

Brooke's Place believes that no person living with childhood grief should feel alone. Volunteers and staff at Brooke's Place work tirelessly toward our mission to support children and their families through bereavement programs, advocacy, community education, and outreach.

Numbers Served

533 Individuals served in 4 bi-monthly program nights holding 744 age-based support group sessions.

125 Individuals served through Therapy Services in 713 counseling sessions. 35% more sessions than in 2014.

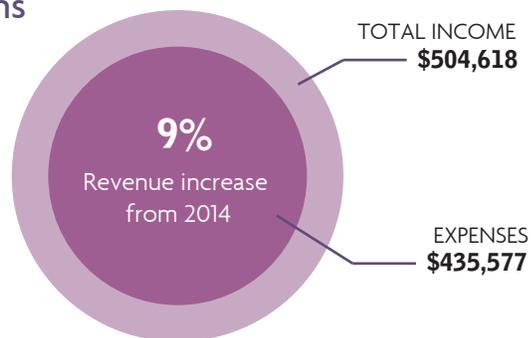

16 individuals in under-served communities served through the BP8 program, a new 8-week, short-term grief support program.

123 Received grief education through 9 training sessions.

38 Individuals trained to become grief support group facilitators through a comprehensive 22-hour training.

Operations

Unaudited numbers indicate that Brooke's Place generated $504,618 in income and $435,577 in expenses in 2015. (Note: These numbers do not include in-kind donations.)

Impact

Brooke's Place helps decrease feelings of isolation: Before attending Brooke's Place, 27% of children and teens indicated feeling understood by those around them. After attending Brooke's Place, 83% reported feeling understood by others.

Brooke's Place helps develop healthy coping skills: Before attending Brooke's Place, 18% of children and teens indicated the ability to express feelings in healthy ways about their loved one who died. After attending Brooke's Place, 62% indicate the ability to do so.

Brooke's Place helps children cope with anxiety: Before attending Brooke's Place, 25% of children and teens indicated the ability to express their fears and worries in healthy ways. After attending Brooke's Place, 65% indicated the ability to do so.

2015 Highlights

Brooke's Place partnered with Agape Therapeutic Riding, resulting in 23 individuals participating in family-based equine groups to experience their grief as a family.

The Watermark Group sponsored the first annual Watermark Holiday Store, an opportunity for Brooke's Place families to select holiday gifts for their loved ones at no cost to them.

Through a partnership with Chaucie's Place, Brooke's Place staff and facilitators implemented Lifelines, a comprehensive suicide prevention and intervention training.

Through a partnership with the Indiana Criminal Justice Institute, Brooke's Place launched plans for the expansion of services in 2016, including the addition of bilingual grief support services, targeted outreach to those who are experiencing the death of a loved one to homicide, and expansion of programs into low-income and under-served communities.

108 golfers attended the Hope Fore Tomorrow Golf outing and raised nearly $40,000.

Theresa Brun was hired as the new Executive Director for Brooke's Place.

Annual fund income increased 18% from 2014.

Individuals attended the Legacy of Hope breakfast and raised over $90,000, the most money ever raised at this event.

